

Janamashtami

At Indus National school, Krishna Janmashtami was celebrated by the staff and students on Saturday, August 24, 2024. Janmashtami is celebrated as a symbol of the end of darkness and rooting out of the evil forces.

A splendid and colourful performance by the Students, depicting the birth of Lord Krishna with a message of victory of good over evil. Students truly communicated the message that "Every moment of life is worth a Celebration. The more you praise and celebrate life, the more there is in life to celebrate."

Children came dressed in ethnic wear as Radha and Krishna. The presentation depicted the varied images of life from birth to manhood transporting one to the world of splendour, colour, myth and legend. It was a beautiful presentation with joyous melody and twirling dancers.

A popular tradition on Krishna Janam Ashtami Matki –Phor was Organised in the playground. This is done to symbolize the destruction of evil. It is also an act of the devotee's love for God as Krishna is known for his naughty childhood. In this competition Red, Blue, Green and yellow houses took part and the house, which emerged victorious was 'Green House'.
